Rear Garden

The principal gardens lie to the South side of the villa where there are mature trees, shrubs and a large level lawned garden. A sun terrace runs along the South side of the house with access from the living room and conservatory. A paved area with stone balustrades provides a perfect sun trap, ideal for al fresco dining. From the rear hallway is a courtyard with a brick built garden store and separate glass house.

Driveway

2 Parking Spaces

The property is approached via a sweeping tarmac driveway allowing ample off road parking and access to the original front door.

Design

A flawless example of what can be achieved by blending modern innovation and thoughtful design whilst enhancing the charm and sophistication of a timeless Victorian Villa (Circa 1885.) The current owners have methodically and painstakingly renovated the entire building to create a timeless and striking family home which is perfectly in tune with the requirements of modern living.

Attention to detail is evident in every corner of this villa, from the high ceilings adorned with decorative features to the Accoya windows that enhance both aesthetics and energy efficiency. The property is equipped with gas central heating and Hanwha q cell photovoltaic panels, ensuring comfort and sustainability for its residents.
