Homestream House,
Horsham, RH12 1SS

 1  2  1

The property is set on the third floor, but accessed by either stairs, or a lift. The flat has its own entrance hall, with doors leading to all rooms and intercom access to admit visitors or contact the House Manager. There is a generous living room, boasting attractive views over the front of the building. From the living room you can access the fitted kitchen, equipped with floor and wall mounted units. Leading out of the living room you can find 2 double bedrooms either side of one another, both also featuring built in storage space. On the other side of the apartment, you can find the large bathroom fitted with both a lowered bath for easy access as well as an updated step in shower for extra convenience.

Homestream House is conveniently positioned within the town centre, but still offers both resident and visitor parking. There is also an attractive area of professionally maintained communal garden. Internally there is an on-site House Manager to help with your day to day needs, with emergency pull cords within the apartment. The development also offers a residents' lounge that hosts regular social gatherings, a laundry room and refuse and recycling facility. There is also a lift to all floors.
