THE LOCATION

The property is set in a sought-after residential road, on the West side of Horsham, within a short walk of the outstanding Tanbridge House School, with both Arunside and St Johns Catholic primary schools also being within easy walking distance. Horsham's thriving town centre is just over a mile from the house, and offers a wide variety of shopping facilities, including a twice-weekly market, set in the Carfax, a John Lewis Store and wide variety of independent retailers. The town also boasts a wide selection of restaurants, coffee shops and bars, an Everyman Cinema and The Capitol Theatre that hosts a wide selection of artists, comedians and shows. Horsham's main line station, with its direct service to London Victoria, is also within 1 mile of the property.

ACCOMMODATION SUMMARY

Tenure: Freehold

The property offers well presented accommodation, arranged over three floors, that has been extended on the ground floor. The ground floor features an entrance hall, with stairs and a refitted downstairs cloakroom, an attractive living room, with a large bay window and feature open fireplace. To the rear of the house there is an extended, refitted kitchen that has a good range of floor and wall mounted units and wood block work surfaces, incorporating a peninsular breakfast bar, with a spacious living room, providing ample space for a large table and chairs and ceramic tiled flooring with underfloor heating. The first floor features a spacious landing, a refitted shower room, with walk in shower, a large master bedroom, with fitted wardrobes and a large bay window and two further bedrooms. The top floor offers a further large double bedroom, providing extensive storage and a refitted white bathroom suite. The house also features attractive panelled doors, double glazing and gas fired central heating.

PARKING & GARDENS

This mature property offers attractive well-maintained gardens, with a well tended area of lawn to the front of the house and a mature hedge providing screening. There is driveway parking for 2 vehicles, with potential for additional parking, a garage or two-floor accommodation extension similar to the adjoining property (STPP), to the side of the house if required. To the rear of the property there is a very attractive secluded rear garden, with a large paved patio, laid to Indian sandstone, with a brick built retaining wall and step up to an expanse of lawn, a well-stocked flower border and a paved walkway running the full depth of the garden. To the rear there is a large timber storage shed, with mature trees and the whole is enclosed by fencing.
