PROPERTY

Tenure: Freehold

Billingshurst Road is a substantial and beautifully presented four/five bedroom detached residence offering impressive space, abundant natural light, and genuine lifestyle flexibility. Thoughtfully arranged over two floors, this elegant family home invites you into a bright entrance hallway that leads seamlessly through the heart of the house. The generously proportioned south-facing living room is bathed in sunlight throughout the day and serves as the perfect space for relaxing or entertaining. The large dining room flows through to a large conservatory, which is currently used as a secondary lounge but could be used as a playroom or garden room—all while enjoying views across the lush, private garden.

The property benefits from a well appointed kitchen complemented by an impressive utility room with doors to both the front and rear is ideal for busy family life, serving as a functional boot room with excellent flow and practicality. On the ground floor, a versatile fifth double bedroom or home office/study adds flexibility for guests or remote work. Upstairs the property benefits from four double bedrooms, one of which has an en-suite shower room. There is a tastefully updated family bathroom featuring stylish fittings and quality finishes. Lovingly maintained and impeccably balanced, this home offers clear potential to extend or redesign (subject to planning), with previous consent granted for garage-to-annex conversion making it an outstanding long-term investment as well as a luxurious place to live.

OUTSIDE AND PARKING

To the front, a well-maintained gravel driveway provides off-street parking for up to three vehicles, in addition to a large garage offering secure storage or potential for conversion. The south-facing rear garden is a true highlight, featuring a beautifully tended lawn, maturing fruit trees, and a charming pergola, creating the perfect backdrop for al fresco dining or garden entertaining. Thoughtfully landscaped and bathed in sunlight throughout the day, this outdoor space is both inviting and private. The garden's orientation and size make it ideal for families, gardening enthusiasts, or those simply seeking an idyllic retreat.
