PROPERTY

This two-bedroom ground-floor apartment, built in 1987, offers a welcoming and well-designed living space. Upon entry, a hallway provides convenient storage, leading into a spacious double-aspect lounge with sliding patio doors that open onto a patio area, creating an ideal setting for outdoor relaxation. The modern fitted kitchen is thoughtfully designed, complete with integrated cooker & hob to make meal preparation effortless. Both bedrooms are well-proportioned, with the principle bedroom benefiting from two fitted wardrobes. The modern bathroom includes a shower over bath. Further enhancing its appeal, this lovely apartment boasts new carpets, gas central heating, and the convenience of one allocated parking space.

OUTSIDE

Accessed via the car park, a set of steps leads to the communal front door, secured with key fob entry for added convenience. The ground-floor flat can also be reached via a side gate, providing direct access to the back door for ease of entry. To the rear, a secluded patio area offers a private and inviting space for outdoor entertaining.

LOCATION

Stamford House is nestled within a highly sought-after gated development, offering both security and convenience. With manicured gardens and its own on-site fitness room that can be used for an additional fee. Ideally located for commuters, it provides easy access to Haywards Heath train station, while the vibrant town centre with its fantastic selection of shops, bars, and restaurants is just a short stroll away.
