

About the property

What the owner loves:

I've lived at Yeomans Mews for 18 years from when my son was 2 months old until now, where he is about to flee the nest.

I have many cherished memories of living here, from meeting life long friends from the neighbourhood to cosy Christmases and sunny summers in the garden.

It feels much more than a house as it contains years of love and happiness and I believe anyone who takes over the keys for this home will be lucky enough to experience the same.

Why we'd buy this home:

This charming end-of-terrace mews house is a genuine opportunity - not just for what it is, but for how it makes you feel. It delivers all the tangible must-haves: a sunny, private, south-facing garden, a separate garage, a sleek modern kitchen, and the ever-valuable "chain-free" status.
