The front door opens into a spacious hallway with a useful walk-in storage cupboard housing the meters and providing excellent practical storage. The shower room is fully tiled and well fitted, with built-in storage, non-slip flooring and a chrome heated towel rail. The living room is a real highlight, being dual aspect, making it light and bright, with a feature electric fireplace creating a cosy focal point. A glazed door leads through to the kitchen, which is fitted with light grey gloss units and integrated appliances including a fridge/freezer, electric oven, halogen hob and washer/dryer, keeping everything neat and streamlined. An obscure glazed window to the side provides both privacy and natural light.
