56 Church Lane, Thrumpton, NG11 0AW

This skillfully extended four bedroom family home enjoys a generous plot with lovely open countryside views to the rear. Thrumpton is a quintessential English village enjoying a rural location, yet with great access to East Midlands Parkway (with direct rail services to London), East Midlands Airport, the M1, M42 and Nottingham tram network. The village has a thriving social scene with various clubs, regular events, a beer festival, a cricket club and village hall which is at the heart of village life. A strong sense of community and beautiful riverside location with countryside walks make this a wonderful place to live while only a 15 mins drive to West Bridgford. This beautifully presented home offers flexible accommodation with self contained annex potential downstairs with an en-suite bedroom and living room. The large detached double garage offers huge potential STP.
