Looking for a two-bedroom terrace with off-street parking and a private garden in Colwick? This home brings together a simple layout with great local connections and everyday convenience.

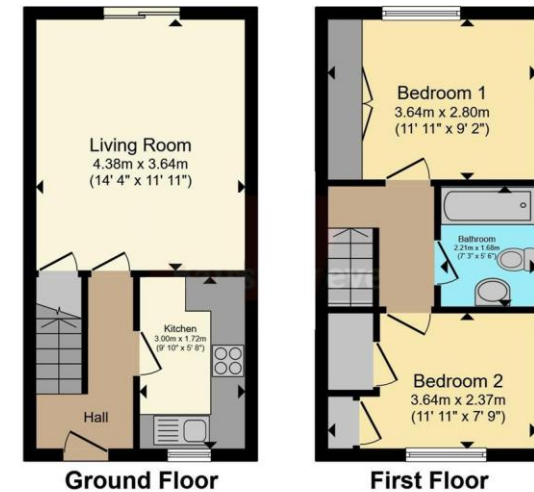

Settled in the heart of Colwick, this two-bedroom terraced house brings together simple, practical living with easy access to local amenities. A bright reception room sits at the front of the home, providing a comfortable place to unwind or catch up on daily life. The modern kitchen sits towards the front, with a straightforward layout that makes cooking and mealtimes feel effortless. Upstairs, two bedrooms offer a calm place to rest, with the larger bedroom providing plenty of space for wardrobes or storage. The bathroom keeps things simple and functional with a clean, fresh finish.

At the back, a private garden offers a spot to enjoy a bit of fresh air, with room for a small seating area or weekend planting projects. Off-street parking is another handy feature, taking away any worries about finding a space nearby. Shops, local schools and bus links can all be reached with minimal effort, making day-to-day routines flow smoothly.

Overall, this house could suit someone wanting to get on the property ladder or those looking for an easy-to-manage place in a well-connected spot. The combination of a comfortable interior, private garden and practical parking rounds off a straightforward, no-nonsense home in Colwick.
