Description

Located in the heart of the award-winning Kidbrooke Village development, this modern and spacious apartment spans approximately 880 sq ft and showcases a sleek, contemporary design throughout.

The development is exceptionally well-maintained, offering residents beautifully landscaped communal gardens and direct access to Sutcliffe Park and the nearby Cator Park — a designated local nature reserve and proud holder of a Green Flag award.

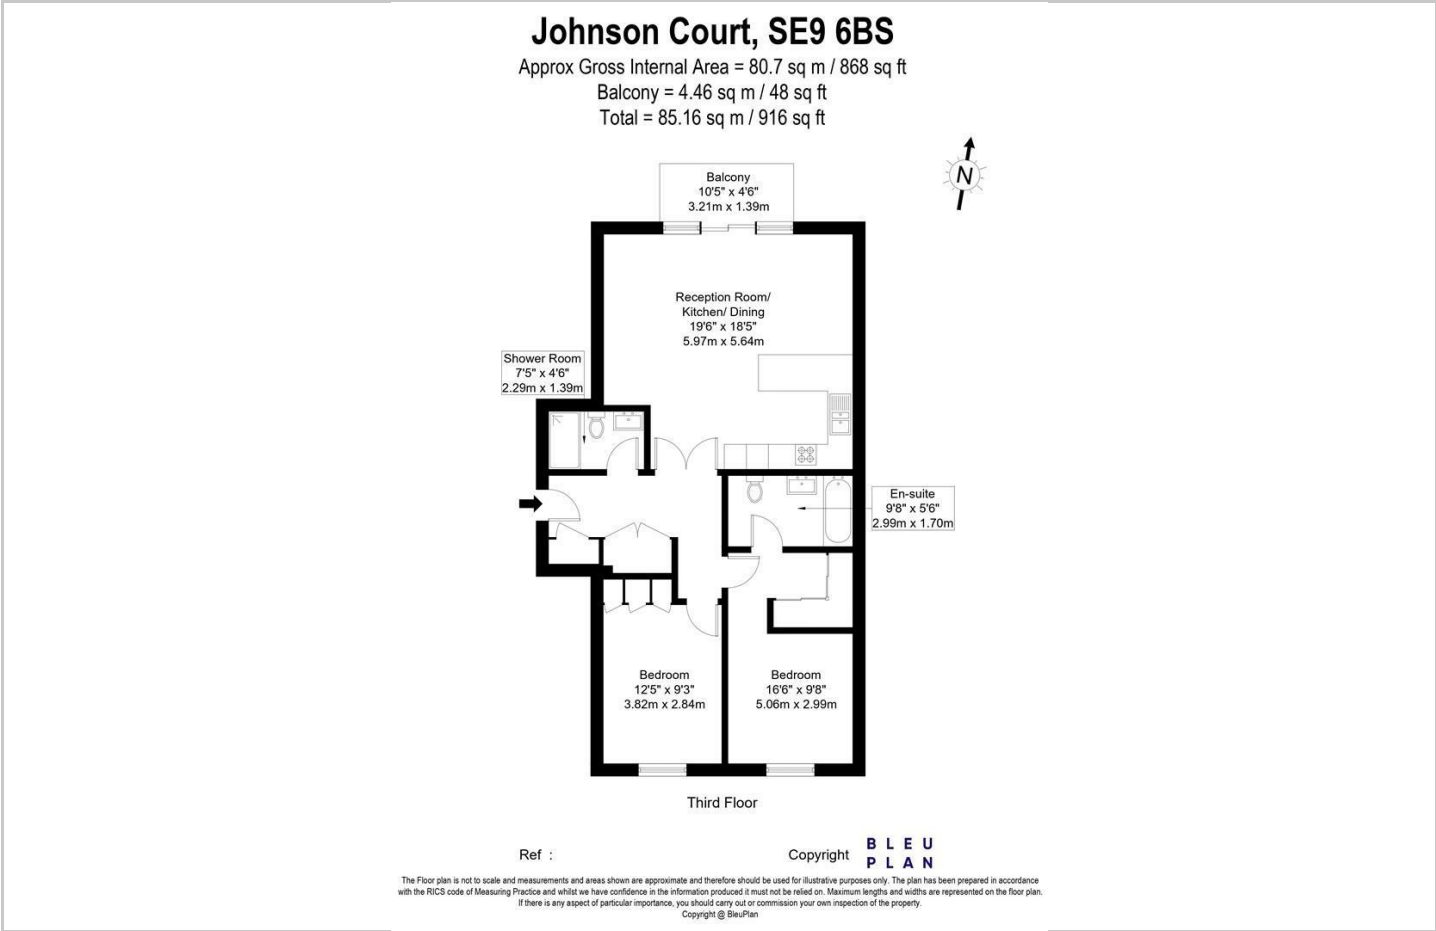

Perfect for commuters, Kidbrooke Station is just half a mile away, providing fast and frequent links to key London stations including London Bridge (15 minutes), Victoria, Charing Cross, Waterloo East and Cannon Street.

The property features two generous double bedrooms, including a master with en-suite, a stylish family bathroom, and a large open-plan kitchen/living area that opens out to a private 20-foot balcony — ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Unlike most homes in the development, this property boasts state-of-the-art
