The main image of the advertisement is a photograph taken from a wooden door, looking out into a lush back garden. The door is made of light-colored wood and has a large glass panel with a gold-colored handle. To the right of the door is a large window with a wooden frame and decorative leaded glass in the upper section. The garden is filled with various plants, including a large, dense green bush in the foreground, a tall evergreen tree in the background, and several potted plants. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds. The overall scene is bright and sunny.
