The Property

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac with glimpses over the rooftops to Plymouth Sound, this detached two-bedroom house sits on its own private plot along with a driveway and a garage. Although some modernisation is required in the kitchen and bathroom, the property layout flows well, with the porch leading past the all-important downstairs WC, into the light and airy living room and on to the kitchen/diner, overlooking the rear garden. Upstairs are two double bedrooms and family bathroom. This would make a perfect first-time home, a good downsize, or a potential investment.

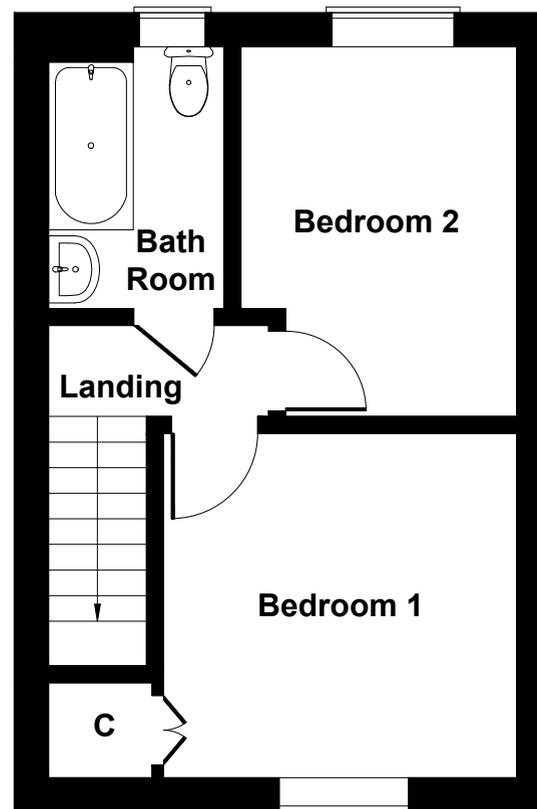

Location

St Ann's Chapel is a small village situated between the towns of Callington and Tavistock with a train station in nearby Gunnislake providing access to the city of Plymouth. There is a primary school, shop, a pub which serves food and beverages, and an array of river and country walks around the surrounding area.
