The accommodation briefly comprises a spacious entrance hall, leading to a generously sized lounge on the left, featuring a large window and a period fireplace. On the right of the hall, you'll find a sizable dining room, offering ample space for a large table, wooden floors, and another charming period fireplace. At the rear of the property is an expansive living room, which enjoys beautiful views over the garden. The well-appointed kitchen/diner is fitted with base and wall units, stone flagged flooring, and provides plenty of space for family dining. French doors lead out to the garden. Additionally, there is a convenient downstairs WC.

On the first floor, there are three well-proportioned double bedrooms, along with a modern family bathroom that features a roll-top bath, separate shower, WC, and washbasin. The second floor has been extended, offering two more double bedrooms and an additional shower room, complete with a shower, WC, and washbasin.

Externally, the front of the property offers a mix of shrubs, small trees, paved, and gravelled areas, with ample space for parking. A large detached garage provides additional storage or parking space. To the rear, you'll find a sun-trap, a high quality paved patio area, alongside a well-maintained lawned garden.

In addition, the rear roof area has a 4KW solar panels that provide electricity. They produce an index linked annual return of circa £2,000 per annum with over 10 years left of the current government contract.
