This impressive, period home is arranged over three floors and offers beautifully presented spacious rooms throughout, a good-sized driveway with garage and front and rear gardens.

The versatile accommodation on offer begins in an entrance porch then into a welcoming hallway where there is access to the principal rooms and a staircase to the upper floors. To the right is a large living room with dual aspect windows allowing natural light to fill the room, a wood burning stove and patio doors leading to the rear garden. The kitchen offers a range of high quality fitted wall, base and drawer units, a central island incorporating a breakfast bar, attractive granite worktops and a freestanding range style cooker. There is a further room open plan to the kitchen which the current owner uses as a formal dining area, again large in size with a lovely feature fireplace with stove and windows overlooking aspect. There is a useful utility area with WC and a conservatory overlooking the rear garden. On the first floor, there is a large double bedroom with en suite facilities, a further three well-proportioned bedrooms and a well appointed family bathroom including high-quality tiling, walk-in shower, bath, WC and hand basin. The second floor has a spacious landing area currently set up as a gym area, a master suite with walk in storage and another en suite shower room. Externally the property has a well established, private rear garden with patio areas, ideal for entertaining while the front garden has trees, climbing vines and the attached driveway leads to a garage providing ample off street parking.
