Upon entering via an original tiled lobby, there is a half glazed inner door into the hallway which contains a useful ground floor WC and stairs leading to the first floor.

The living room has a bay window allowing for lots of natural light. There is a working fire place which is a charming feature, creating a cosy main reception room to the front aspect. The second reception room has a wood burning stove in an alcove fireplace and patio doors to the rear. While the kitchen has been recently upgraded and includes appliances and bi fold doors to further enhance the space.

The spacious first floor landing currently incorporates a study/office area, has an additional useful laundry storage space, a skylight for natural light and provides access to three, well presented generous bedrooms, all with retained period features. A very well appointed family bathroom with bath and a separate walk in shower, completes this floor.

The home has a well kept town garden to the front and a pleasantly presented, enclosed rear yard which offers a good degree of privacy and is ideal for outdoor gatherings.
