Approach

This excellent-sized, two-bedroom period mid-terrace home is beautifully presented and full of charm. The property is approached via a landscaped fore garden, enclosed by low-level boundary walling with elegant wrought iron railings and a matching front gate. Upon entering, you're greeted by a well-tended block-paved front garden, tastefully planted with mature shrubs, trees, and plants. A distinctive blue engineering brick pathway gently winds its way through the garden, guiding you to a set of steps that lead up to the storm porch. The entrance features a composite double-glazed front door set beneath a double-glazed overhead window, allowing natural light to filter into the porch and interior hallway beyond.

Entrance Vestibule

Stepping inside, the entrance hallway features an original-style Minton tiled floor, adding a touch of timeless elegance. Cornicing to the ceiling enhances the period character, while a glazed interior door with a matching glazed window above allows additional light to filter through, creating a bright and welcoming space. This door opens into:

Main Hall

The hallway continues with ceiling cornicing that complements the property's period style. A staircase rises to the first floor, and a central heating radiator provides warmth to the space. A charming arched opening adorned with decorative corbels adds architectural interest and leads to a set of interior doors, which in turn open into:

Front Reception Room

14'01" x 10'08" (4.29m x 3.25m )

Dining Room

11'08" x 10'10" (3.56m x 3.30m )

From the hallway, a door opens into the dining room, which benefits from a central ceiling light point and a central heating radiator, creating a cosy space ideal for entertaining or family meals. A further door provides access to a useful under-stairs storage area, which offers the potential to be converted into a partial utility space, with ample room and provision for a tumble dryer. A glazed oak internal door, accompanied by a small step down, leads through to:

Enlarged Breakfast Kitchen

16'08" x 8'02" (5.08m x 2.49m )

This leads into the kitchen, a bright and functional space featuring double-glazed windows to both the side and rear elevations, along with a double-glazed UPVC exterior door providing access to the side return—ideal for everyday convenience. The kitchen is well-equipped with a range of matching wall and base units, including decorative display cupboards, and is finished with roll-edge work surfaces and coordinating tiled splashbacks. Appliances include a four-ring gas hob, integrated double oven, under-counter fridge and freezer, washing machine, and microwave. Additional features include two ceiling light points, a one and a half bowl stainless steel sink and drainer with hot and cold mixer tap, and a tiled floor, completing this practical and inviting culinary space.

Rear Garden

The fully landscaped rear garden is accessed directly from the kitchen via steps laid in blue engineering-style brickwork, which extend into the side return—also finished in matching brick—with a side wooden access gate leading to the front of the property. This area flows onto a raised blue engineering brick patio, offering a charming vantage point over the beautifully maintained rear garden. A wooden door provides entry to a set of original outbuildings, including a storage shed and a separate outside WC. The WC has been refitted with a traditional high-flush toilet, wall-hung wash hand basin with hot and cold mixer tap, tiled flooring, wall-mounted electric radiator, and a frosted single-glazed window looking out to the garden. The main garden area is a true delight, thoughtfully designed with blue slate chippings, circular patio features, and raised decorative flowerbeds, complemented by well-stocked ornamental borders. A lawned section leads to the rear portion of the garden via a neat pathway, where you'll find a mature and vibrant display of trees, plants, and shrubs, creating a private and peaceful outdoor retreat. Toward the rear, there's a further seating patio area, complete with raised sleeper flowerbeds, vegetable patches, and a garden shed, all enclosed by panel fencing for added privacy and security.

First Floor Accommodation

From the hallway, a staircase with decorative balustrading and handrail ascends to a split-level first-floor landing, which provides access to all first-floor accommodation. The landing features a central heating radiator and an over-stairs storage cupboard, offering practical storage solutions. A loft access point is also located here, providing entry to a fully boarded loft space via a pull-down ladder. This area offers excellent additional storage and presents further potential for conversion into a loft room or additional bedroom, subject to the usual planning consents and building regulations. A partial step from the landing leads into:

Contemporary Bathroom

7'11" x 9'06" (2.41m x 2.90m)

The stylish family bathroom is finished to a high standard, offering both comfort and contemporary design. It features a corner-entry shower enclosure with a mains-powered shower, alongside a freestanding roll-edge bath with hot and cold mixer tap, ideal for relaxing soaks. A contemporary wash hand basin on a stand, also fitted with a mixer tap, is paired with a push-button WC for modern convenience. Additional fittings include a central heating radiator, a heated chrome towel rail, and a frosted double-glazed window to the side aspect for privacy and natural light. The bathroom is fully tiled to three-quarter wall height, with complementary floor tiling, and recessed ceiling spotlights create a bright, clean ambiance. An in-built airing cupboard houses the Ferroli combination boiler, discreetly tucked away yet easily accessible.

Main Bedroom

13'01" x 16'0" (3.99m x 4.87m )

The primary bedroom is a superb-sized double room, enjoying an abundance of natural light thanks to two double-glazed windows to the front aspect. The space is well-lit with two drop-down ceiling light points, and warmth is provided by a central heating radiator. Generously proportioned, this room offers ample space for a full bedroom suite while retaining a bright and airy feel.

Bedroom Two

12'03" x 10'02" (3.73m x 3.10m)

The second bedroom is a well-proportioned double room, featuring a double-glazed window to the rear aspect that offers pleasant views over the garden. Additional features include a ceiling light point and a central heating radiator, ensuring the room is both bright and comfortable—ideal as a guest bedroom, child's room, or home office.
