

Richmond House, Colliton Street, Dorchester

Dorchester

£425,000

A beautifully presented three-storey Georgian townhouse in the very heart of Dorchester. This Grade II listed home is full of character and period features, whilst also benefiting from a number of modern touches including a stylish kitchen with skylights, a log burner in the sitting room, and a luxurious master suite with freestanding bath.

The property offers generous accommodation, sash windows, feature fireplaces, exposed beams, flagstone flooring and bespoke shutters – all blending history with modern comfort.

Outside, there is a lovely walled garden with shared passageway access, plus residents' permit parking in Zone D.

Accommodation

Entrance Hall

Part-glazed wooden door into a welcoming hallway with original Georgian flagstone flooring, coat hanging space and access to the cellar (ideal for storage or utility use).

Sitting Room

A cosy front-facing reception with sash window and bespoke shutters. The feature fireplace now houses a charming log burner with ornate surround and tiled hearth. Wooden flooring, shelving to alcoves, TV and telephone points.

Reception Room

A versatile second living space with feature fireplace and flagstone flooring, ideal as a dining room, snug or study.

Kitchen / Dining Room

A bright and characterful kitchen with vaulted ceiling and two skylights. Feature double-glazed doors open to the garden. Fitted with a bespoke kitchen including solid wood worktops, Belfast sink, electric cooker and gas hob with extractor, and integrated dishwasher. Flagstone flooring, ample space for a family dining table.
