178 DINGLE LANE

This extended family home combines space, comfort and convenience. Behind its gated frontage, it has been designed for modern living, making it ideal for growing families. Set over two floors, it offers generous reception areas, practical features and inviting outdoor space.

The ground floor is arranged for everyday life and entertaining. Two reception rooms provide flexibility, one as a TV room and the other a formal lounge with feature fireplace. The re-fitted breakfast kitchen and living area forms the heart of the home, finished with sleek dark blue units and a log burner for character. Wide bi-fold doors open to the garden, linking inside and out.

Upstairs are five bedrooms, three with en-suites, plus a family bathroom. The fifth bedroom, at the front, works well as a single or study.

Outside, a gated driveway provides parking for several vehicles, while the south west facing rear garden is ideal for entertaining with a new patio and discreet evening lighting.

Families will value the location within walking distance of Tudor Grange, Alderbrook and St Peters schools and Solihull town centre with its shops, restaurants and amenities.

From the moment you step through the double doors into the large reception hall, the sense of space is clear. To one side, the converted garage now offers a sizeable reception room, perfect for use as a TV snug or playroom. To the other, a spacious lounge features a traditional fireplace and double doors that lead through to the extended kitchen and family area. Here, contemporary meets comfort, with handle less dark blue kitchen units and integrated appliances balanced by a log burner in the cosy lounge corner. Bi-fold doors flood the space with light and open directly onto a recently laid patio, making this the true hub of the home. A well-planned utility, with direct access to the garden, completes the downstairs.

The first floor offers excellent sleeping arrangements across five bedrooms. Four of the rooms are doubles, three of which have en-suite shower rooms for added convenience and privacy. The family bathroom serves the remainder of the floor.

The fifth bedroom, positioned to the front, is a well-sized single with potential as a nursery or home office. A wide landing ties the layout together, creating a sense of light and openness on the upper floor.
