SOUTHGATE - LONDON

A NEW LOOK FOR CONTEMPORARY LIVING

A NEW LOOK FOR CONTEMPORARY LONDON LIVING

BLAGDENS ROW IS AN EXCLUSIVE
RESIDENTIAL ENCLAVE IN NORTH
LONDON'S SOUTHGATE, N14 6DB.

Its bold contemporary architecture has Art Deco influences; a subtle nod towards Southgate's iconic circular tube station, which dates from that era, and is just 6 minutes on foot.

Within Blagdens Row are just six 4 bedroom townhouses and two 2 bedroom apartments, all offering an interior specification of striking modern design and the utmost luxury. Set in landscaped gated grounds, just off the high street, with allocated parking, Blagdens Row combines privacy and convenience in unique style.

A COSMOPOLITAN NEIGHBOURHOOD FOR SHOPPING & DINING

SOUTHGATE'S SHOPS AND RESTAURANTS ARE WITHIN EASY WALKING DISTANCE FROM BLAGDENS ROW, MAKING FOR A MORE RELAXED LIFESTYLE WHERE YOU ARE NOT CAR-DEPENDENT.

Many of the local businesses are clustered along the High Street and Chase Side, and include plenty of banks, hairdressers, pharmacies, a Pure Gym, post office, library and food stores such as M&S Simply Food and Tesco.

The local restaurants, as you might expect in a cosmopolitan London neighbourhood, encompass many different cuisines.

Sushi, Chinese, Lebanese, Italian, Indian and Japanese are just a few of the options available. If you like a traditional pub, Ye Olde Cherry Tree brings a touch of rustic charm and is a welcoming place for Sunday lunch.

Muswell Hill, about 20 minutes by car, is a busy centre of independent shops, cafés and restaurants, and also boasts an Everyman cinema. Southgate's proximity to the North Circular Road also means that one of London's biggest shopping centres, Brent Cross, is an easy trip. More than 120 shops, including John Lewis and Fenwick, compete for your attention, and the plans to expand the centre will make it an even better destination for shopping and leisure.

OUTDOOR DELIGHTS & EXCELLENT SCHOOLS

LONDON IS A CITY OF LOCAL PARKS, AND BLAGDENS ROW RESIDENTS HAVE SEVERAL LARGE OPEN SPACES TO ENJOY VERY CLOSE TO HOME.

Grovelands Park, just ten minutes' walk away, is an enchanting mix of meadows, grassland, wildlife, a playground, boating lake, nine hole golf course and tennis courts.

Trent Country Park, just a little further, is a 413-acre former royal hunting forest and country estate, where the attractions include nature trails amongst magnificent trees, a museum, and historic monuments, with a golf club next door.

Education in Southgate caters for all ages, and many schools are ranked highly, one reason why families are drawn to the area. Ashmole Primary, Ashmole Academy and Monkfrith Primary are all 'outstanding', while St Andrew's C of E Primary, Brunswick Park Primary and Nursery, West Grove Primary, Walker Primary and Osidge Primary achieve 'good'. Barnet and Southgate College provides a wide range of A-level, foundation and vocational courses for older students.

ONE REASON FOR SOUTHGATE'S POPULARITY IS ITS FAST AND DIRECT
TUBE CONNECTIONS TO CENTRAL LONDON.

Southgate tube station, distinctively Art Deco and Grade II Listed, is on the Piccadilly Line, which is a direct route into the West End. It is just six minutes' walk from Blagdens Row.

Alternatively, New Southgate station is approximately nine minutes by car and offers national rail services providing direct links into The City of London via Moorgate.

Road links are first class too. Southgate is close to several major routes including the North Circular Road, A1 and M25. For getting into or around London, or reaching the airports, you couldn't be better placed.
