Outside

The bungalow occupies a good sized corner plot with private side and rear gardens bordered by feather edge fencing, bushes and privet hedging. The bungalow is approached across a shared brick paved driveway which leads to a private drive with hardstanding for two cars and this leads to the attached garage. There's a pathway to the door and a gravelled front garden area. The rear garden offers a good degree of privacy and is, in our opinion a gardeners delight. There is a good sized sweeping lawn extending across the rear and side of the bungalow, and well stocked beds and borders, a paved path way and patio area as well as an outside tap.
