Properties get a rating from A (best) to G (worst) and a score. The better the rating and score, the lower your energy bills are likely to be.

For properties in England and Wales:

- the average energy rating is D
- the average energy score is 60

Breakdown of property's energy performance

Features in this property

Features get a rating from very good to very poor, based on how energy efficient they are. Ratings are not based on how well features work or their condition.

Assumed ratings are based on the property's age and type. They are used for features the assessor could not inspect.

| Feature              | Description                                 | Rating    |
|----------------------|---|-----------|
| Wall                 | Cavity wall, as built, insulated (assumed)  | Good      |
| Roof                 | Pitched, 200 mm loft insulation             | Good      |
| Window               | Fully double glazed                         | Good      |
| Main heating         | Boiler and radiators, mains gas             | Good      |
| Main heating control | Programmer, room thermostat and TRVs        | Good      |
| Hot water            | From main system                            | Good      |
| Lighting             | Low energy lighting in 77% of fixed outlets | Very good |
| Floor                | Suspended, no insulation (assumed)          | N/A       |
| Secondary heating    | Room heaters, mains gas                     | N/A       |

Primary energy use

Properties get a rating from A (best) to G (worst) on how much carbon dioxide (CO<sub>2</sub>) they produce each year. CO<sub>2</sub> harms the environment.

Carbon emissions

An average household produces

6 tonnes of CO<sub>2</sub>

---

This property produces

5.5 tonnes of CO<sub>2</sub>

---

This property's potential production

3.7 tonnes of CO<sub>2</sub>

---

You could improve this property's CO<sub>2</sub> emissions by making the suggested changes. This will help to protect the environment.

These ratings are based on assumptions about average occupancy and energy use. People living at the property may use different amounts of energy.
